CONCERNING WELL KNOWN BUSINESS AND NEWSPAPER

The writer was walking along our main business thoroughfare this morning when he saw a friend, a merchant, standing nonchalantly in front of his store. Bantering him the newspaper man suggested that an ad in the LEAF-CHRONICLE would put him behind his counters. The merchant replied:

"Yes I know that—but I don't want to kill myself working. I like to get out here once in a while and enjoy the ozone, see the blue sky and hear the pigeons coo, and look here, Bill, I've been thinking that I really ought not to have to advertise so much. I've been here in business for years. I've been at this same stand. I've handled the same merchandise all that time. I sell only reliable goods. I've treated the public fair and square. Now they know all about me and when they need they know they can come right here and get it. Now, isn't that correct reasoning?"

"Well, my friend," said the newspaper man, "I can't stop right now to show you the fallacy of your logic, for I must go to the office to look after the advertisement of another old-timer, a sure-enough old timer, who recently celebrated her fiftieth anniversary in business, namely, THE COURIER-JOURNAL. We know THE COURIER-JOURNAL, its achievements in the past, its steady progress with the forward march of time and events, and yet when the Old Lady wants to get far-reaching results she gets them by the quickest, surest route, by ADVERTISING. And when she wants to reach this section, she advertises in THE LEAF-CHRONICLE, another leader, if in a smaller way, in the progress and welfare of the community it serves. Watch THE LEAF-CHRONICLE today. It is not a 'courtesy' ad., by the way, but it is paid for in cash, at our established card rates, without quibble or question. Well, after all I did stop long enough to give you an answer to your question, didn't I? But, so long."

FOREVER THE SAME

The world's way, my dear,
Forever the same,
And this one to glory
And that one to shame.
The dark day or sunny,
It's go-as-you-please;
The bees rob for honey,
And man robs for the bees.

HANDS, ARMS, LIMBS ASLEEP

And Was Run-Down, Weak and Nervous, Says Florida Lady.
Five Bottles of Cardui
Made Her Well.

Kathleen, Fla.—Mrs. Dallas Price, of this place, says: "After the birth of my last child, I felt very much run-down and weakened, so much that I could hardly do anything at all. I was so awfully nervous that I could scarcely endure the least noise. My condition was getting worse all the time."

I knew I must have some relief or I would soon be in the bed and in a serious condition for I felt so badly and was so nervous and weak I could hardly live. My husband asked Dr. about my taking Cardui. He said, "It's a good medicine, and good for that trouble," so he got me 5 bottles. After about the second bottle I felt greatly improved. Before taking it my limbs and hands and arms would go to sleep. After taking it, however, this poor circulation disappeared. My strength came back to me and I was soon on the road to health. After the use of about 5 bottles, I could do all my house-work and attend to my six children besides."

You can feel safe in giving Cardui a thorough trial for your troubles. It contains no harmful or habit-forming drugs, but is composed of mild, vegetable, medicinal ingredients with no bad after-effects. Thousands of women have voluntarily written, telling of the good Cardui has done them. It should help you, too. Try it. E 74
